NORWAY AND VICINITY

School Notes.

The high school and all Norway schools begin Monday, Sept. 22d.

At the Holt school, last Monday, Edna I. Brown registered 14 pupils.

Evelyn B. Partridge is to teach on Pike's Hill. Miss Bearce of Hebron has resigned the Nobie's Corner school to teach at home, and the committee are looking for an applicant for the position thus made vacant.

Repairs are completed on the Lake house, a new floor having been laid and modern seats installed. At the lower primary the same work has been done, a new chimney built and many changes made in the room. The painters will give the last touches to the academy basement the first of next week.

Napoleon Labossler visited his friends in Berlin, the first of the week.

Mrs. J. F. Gardiner was taken seriously ill last week with a stomach trouble. She is improving rapidly.

Fernald Sawyer, who has been a teacher in one of the schools in the Philippines, has returned after a sickness of malarial fever to his home in Otisfield.

Wendell Rounds of South Paris finished work for F. P. Stone last week. He attends Bates College but for a couple week will teach for his sister at Leavitt Institute, Turner.

Real estate in the town of Norway on which the taxes for 1901 are unpaid will be advertised for sale. If you do not want your property in this list you should pay the taxes before Oct. 4.

M. W. Sampson recently shot a bald eagle that had a spread of wings six feet and ten inches. The bird was flying across the lake and was killed with number six shot. Mr. Sampson sold the eagle to George R. Howe and it is to be mounted by Nash.

Hon. Alfred S. Kimball and wife started, Thursday morning, for Des Moines, Iowa, to attend the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. At Boston they will meet the delegates from New England and the Maritime Provinces of Canada, and from there the party will have two Pullman cars without change to Des Moines. On their return they will visit Chicago, the coal fields of Pennsylvania and Senaca lake. The party will be gone two weeks.

Willie, the seven-year-old son of Herbert Dyer, was with his mother and some other ladies in front of A. Edwards & Son's store, Saturday afternoon, when a dog belonging to J. F. Bolster came along. The boy spoke to and attempted to pat the dog which rushed upon him, knocking him over and injuring him severely. It is not clear whether the dog bit the boy or whether he was injured in falling upon stones, which latter is the opinion of the physician. The boy had a cut across nose and cheek requiring eleven stitches, and a bad swelling over the eyes, which is now going down. The boy is more comfortable and improving.

The People's Course of entertainments begins Wednesday evening, Sept. 24, when May Parker's Little Pickaninnies and Concert Company, including three genuine little darkies, May Parker, Florence Beckett a flute soloist, Bertha Webb, a widely known violinist, and Lillian Pierce, reader, appear for the first time before a Norway audience. This, and in fact each programme selected for the course is a gem and alone worth the price of a course ticket. All our people are buying course tickets. If you haven't purchased yours, secure one now. Seats reserved at Stone's at 8 a. m., Saturday, Sept. 20.

Norway Municipal Court.

Charles E. Brown of North Paris was found guilty of intoxication, Tuesday. He was fined $1 and costs, which was paid.

Sixtieth Exhibition.

The sixtieth exhibition of Oxford County Agricultural Society will be held on the Fair Grounds between Norway and South Paris villages, next week Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 16th, 17th and 18th.

Everything goes to show that with fair weather this will add another to this society's long list of successful fairs. The cattle exhibit will doubtless be unusually large. One man, Moses Young of Hartford, has engaged twenty-five stalls. The hall exhibit promises to be fine. Three Granges will probably exhibit. Improvements have been made about the grounds, and every one knows that this society has one of the handsomest fair grounds in the State.

The Norway Band has been engaged to furnish music. There will be balloon ascensions, Wednesday and Thursday, by the Harold Cox Trans-Atlantic Co., acrobats and gymnasts, who will also entertain the people from the stage.

The Cattle Show Ball will occur on Wednesday evening at the Norway Opera House. Music, Stearns' Orchestra; hall director, Joseph Tallon.

The races as far as filled when we go to press are:—

This is the season when Oxford county people meet to enjoy a great field day, see their friends, welcome all of their former acquaintances living at a distance who may return, eat pop corn and other good things, ride on the merry-go-round, be entertained by the bright sayings of the fakirs, and incidentally see the exhibits of the only real agricultural show extant.

While we may not be able to greet you all personally, we shall be glad to have you come and visit the old Oxford County Fair.

Grand Army Men Talked To.

James L. Merrick of Waterville, department commander of the Grand Army, visited Harry Rust Post at its hall Wednesday and gave the members a talk of an hour's duration.

He urged increased activity on the part of comrades to add new names to the roster of the past, gave statistics showing the present membership of the Grand Army as compared with one year ago and complimented the boys in blue on the excellent showing they have made in years gone by.

The speaker referred to the gradual mustering out of the men who fought in the 60's, and recommended that an effort be made by members of the past to induce comrades who were not enrolled, to join. This year, he said, the members of Harry Rust Post placed flags on the graves of 135 soldiers. Commander Merrick intends to visit every Post in Maine, the one here being the eighth he has talked to.

C. M. Smith is having his buildings reshingled.

A number of our people went to Bethel fair, Wednesday.

Get in your copy for the Fair DAILY. Bring or send it in at once.

Allard & Moulton's store in the Noyes block is being painted and papered.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rowe visited their son Ernest at Westbrook, recently.

Irene F. and Evelyn May Hazen visited friends in Mechanic Falls over Sunday.

Rev. J. A. Harding came, Tuesday, to spend a vacation of two or three weeks here.

Arthur Swan and family of West Everett, Mass., are visiting his mother, Mrs. Rowena Swan.

Thirty-nine of our residents went on the Oquossoc excursion, Wednesday, from Norway station.

Dr. Austin Tenney, oculist, will by special request be at Norway fair, Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

Mrs. M. F. Sadler and two children from Island Pond, Vt., came, Wednesday, to visit her sister, Mrs. E. N. Swett.

Mrs. G. A. Allen and her trimmer, Mae L. Grierson, are attending the millinery openings this week in Boston and New York.

A rose over six inches in diameter was a great attraction in Stone's window recently. It was a beauty but had an unpronounceable name.

Maud Pike had a party, Tuesday afternoon. There were eleven little girls present, who played games and partook of a treat, enjoying themselves very much.

E. F. Sawyer and wife of Bath are visiting his nephew, Rev. B. F. Fickett. He is a member of the ship building firm of Kelley, Spear & Co. and has been engaged in the business for forty years or more.

Ned Cox was injured Tuesday. He was riding a bicycle down a steep hill when the forks broke. He was thrown and lay unconscious for twenty minutes or more before being found. He is getting along well.

The Grand Trunk Railway have an excursion to Montreal, Quebec and St. Anne de Beaupre, Monday, Sept. 15. Fare to Montreal or Quebec from Norway and South Paris is $7.25. Tickets good to return until Oct. 15.

Titcomb—Thurston.

Forrest D. Thurston of Errol, N. H., and Addie E. Titcomb were married, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. John A. Harding at Mr. Harding's residence. The wedding was a very quiet one only a very few relatives and intimate friends being present. A large number of suitable and useful presents were given them.

The bride is one of our well-known and beloved young ladies, who has taught many terms in our district schools. The groom is engaged in the lumbering business in Errol.

The newly united couple took the afternoon train to Portland, amid the usual active expressions of good wishes of such occasions.

The Election in Norway.

Monday, Sept. 8th, was a perfect day for election. The balloting passed off quietly, although there was considerable splitting of tickets, especially on the vote for sheriff.

The vote cast was 441, of which 32 were thrown out because the cross was not made at the head under the party name. On the vote for sheriff thirty-nine were rejected because the sticker was put on the name to be erased, instead of under it, and two were blank, being straight socialist tickets on which no nomination for sheriff was made.

The vote was counted and declared about 8 o'clock, at which time returns from Paris were received, also the Representative in the Waterford district.

New Aerial Feat.

The Wheeling, W. Va. Register has a notice of a big sensational feature of attraction for the State fair held in that city which is a so-called bomb ascension. Attached to a balloon is a large bomb, within which a man is hidden. At a certain height the bomb explodes and the aeronaut clinging to a parachute drops from the debris. This feature is being presented in large cities. The aeronaut is Walter Hazelton, aged 21 years, who is the son of John Hazelton, formerly of Norway, now of Westbrook.

Opening of Maine's Shooting Season.

With the arrival of midnight, Sunday, the fall shooting season in Maine will be open, the law on partridge, ruffed grouse and woodcock expiring at that time.

Ethel Peaco of Otisfield is visiting at S. D. Andrews'.

Mrs. V. W. Hills is in Boston and New York, this week.

Alvin L. Cotton returned, Saturday night, from Southampton, Mass.

Mrs. A. Edwards has returned from her visit in Yarmouth and Lewiston.

Mrs. John Rice of North Waterford is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. G. F. Stone.

Will Libby is improving after his attack of rheumatism and is able to get about.

Alfred Lafarier returned, Monday, to Hebron Academy to begin his term's teaching.

O. A. Tubbs and family from Portland have been visiting at Orren Tubbs, the past week.

Mrs. Augusta Kendall, who has been spending the summer in Sweden, is visiting in town.

George W. Hobbs has had a cement walk laid between his buildings on Main street to the sidewalk.

Mrs. Mabel (Trafton) Knight of Portland is visiting Nellie Andrews, Margaret Baker and other friends.

Mrs. M. C. Quint will preach next Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Advent meeting, G. A. R. Hall.

Send in your copy for the Fair Daily. Three thousand copies of the paper will be printed and given to those who attend the fair on the second day.

The alterations and repairs to Gorham Knight's house by the tannery bridge have reached plastering. A fine new front room is added to the rent.

The switch in the car track opposite the car barn was injured by a heavy team passing over and bending the connecting rods. It took some time to repair it.

E. M. Strout, who is working in Cook's barber shop, was called to Mechanic Falls Thursday of last week, by the illness and subsequent death of his mother. He returned to Norway, Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Noble and sister, Electra Brown of Oberlin, Ohio, daughters of the late Olcutt Brown and natives of Norway, are here for awhile. Mr. Noble is also a native of Norway and was a soldier in Co. F, in the 17th.

Master Roland S. Nevers entertained his class at Sunday school with teacher on Wednesday afternoon from three until five. The little folks all had a pleasant afternoon. He received many presents, among them a gold watch, the gift of his aunt, Maude Small.

Owen P. Smith of the Safety Rail Joint Co. of Rumford is in town in the interest of their company. A model can be seen at the Beal's House and Mr. Smith will be pleased to explain it. The prospects of the company look flattering. See ad. on 3d page of this paper and call and see Mr. Smith and the model.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Family Reunion at South Waterford.

The slogan sounded, and in response there gathered at the home of Mrs. Maria A. Houghton of Waterford, on Wednesday, Sept. 3, a large company of relatives and friends from far and near. They came laden with baskets and boxes which were well filled when they arrived, but whose contents were sadly depleted before night came. The day was perfect and all made merry while many willing hands prepared the tables, which were laden with the most delicious salads, hot rolls, cold meats, green corn, pickles, cheese, etc., with pies and cakes, galore, and for dessert ice cream, cake, bananas, coffee and peanuts.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, the gifts of friends who remembered the "aunties" and their love for the fragrant blossoms. After dinner the day was spent in pleasant chats on the piazza and lawn, and when the sinking sun warned us that night was coming, and the sad words "good-bye" must be spoken, we separated, all hoping that another year would again bring together the members of the cousin party.

Those present were Mrs. Maria A. Houghton, Miranda Billlings, Geo. C. Wheeler and wife, Luther Wheeler, Mrs. Nellie Billings, Frank Billings, Mrs. F. A. Plummer, Agnes and Carrie Plummer, all of Waterford; Mrs. Clara B. Noble of Winchester, Mass.; Mrs. C. F. Wheeler of Chatham, N. J.; Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamlin of Waltham, Mass.; Dr. W. E. Hamlin, Assistant Surgeon of the Soldiers' Home, Chelsea, Mass.; Edith Trask of Brockton, Mass.; Mrs. Guy Kimball, Ruth Kimball, Newton, Mass.; Mrs. A. S. Kimball, Mrs. Hiram Libby, Norway; G. O. Bailey, Mrs. Charles B. Gibbs, Fred Gibbs and wife, Donald and Gerald Gibbs, Geo. H. Billings and wife, Charles C. Hamlin and wife, Charlie Hamlin and Alice Florence Little, all of Bridgton; Leander S. Billings and wife of Paris.

Summer company is beginning to leave.

Homer Brown has returned to Rumford Falls.

The Murphys have gone back to their home in the West.

There was party at Mrs. Maria Houghton's, last week.

Prof. G. L. Kimball is going to Massachusetts on business, this week.

There was a picnic on the banks of Mutiny, last Saturday. Harrison company.

Mutiny school is under the instruction of Alice Monroe; city school, Ethel Monroe.

Samuel Ring has been suffering from the effects of rheumatism.

There was a light frost, last Friday and Saturday nights, not enough to affect the crops it is hoped.

Moses Knight, an aged citizen of Sweden, died, last Tuesday. Funeral was held at E. Stone's, Thursday. Interment in Elm Vale Cemetery.

BRYANT'S POND.

A Puzzling Mishap.

Jacob F. Whitman and wife of Otisfield and Rev. E. Z. Whitman of Harrison visited at G. A. Whitman's, Monday night. They journeyed together in a double carriage with no farther mishap than losing a horse collar between Harrison and North Bridgton. J. F. Whitman is now visiting his parents in Woodstock.

Myrtle Bacon returns to her school in Portland, Saturday.

F. H. Lewis' two daughters Annie and Mamie were the guests of F. R. Bailey last week.

Susie Mason has returned to her home in Conway, after spending a few weeks in this place with Nina Dennett.

SOUTH PARIS.

The Tolman Concert.

The concert given Friday evening at the Methodist church by Carl Jean Tolman, organist, the Alpha Ladies' Quartette of Lewiston and Harry Webber, reader, of Auburn, is universally pronounced one of the best ever given here. It had only a small house. The Alpha Quartette was so pleasing that it will probably be engaged for the closing concert in the lecture course which the Epworth League will put on this fall. The program, Friday evening, was as follows:

Offertoire de St. Cecilia—Batiste	Mr. Tolman
Concert Waltz—Buck	Alpha Quartet
Reading—Selected	Mr. Webber
March—Gounod	Mr. Tolman
Volkslied—Geibel	Alpha Quartet
Reading—Selected	Mr. Webber

A Prohibition rally was held at New Hall, last Thursday evening, addressed by Volney B. Cushing of Bangor in a clear and earnest manner. W. E. Purington, nominee for sheriff, was unable to be present. There was a good attendance.

A Republican rally was held at New Hall, Saturday night. Hon. John P. Swasey and Hon. J. S. Wright addressed the gathering. Local issues were thoroughly discussed. The hall was crowded with our citizens and those interested in political affairs.

Horace Knight.

Horace Knight, a well known resident of Paris, died at his home in the southern part of the town, Sunday, Sept. 7, aged 64 years. He had been ill for a long time. He was a native of Paris, son of Nathaniel and Martha Houghton Knight. He was unmarried and lived with an unmarried brother, Hudson, and unmarried sister, Livonia, at the home place. The funeral services were held, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. Little. Interment at Fairview cemetery,

Election Day in Paris.

The State election was very quiet here, Monday. About one-half the voters were out. Knots of voters were gathered here and there. In the forenoon numbers of the ballots were split but in the afternoon more ballots were cast straight.

The vote was counted and declared about half past seven. The Republican ticket ran 330 to 340, the Democratic 81 to 90 and the Prohibition 68 and 69. Flint ran behind getting 272, Shurtleff slightly ahead 92, Purington going considerably ahead with 93, and some ballots spoiled.

Reception to Pastor.

The Baptist society gave a reception to their pastor, Rev. H. S. Pinkham, Monday evening. There was a large number of people present. The vestry had a truly home like appearance with pictures and flowers, furniture, and rugs upon the floor. Coffee, cocoa and tea were served.

The first part of the evening was devoted to meeting the pastor. Following this was singing by the church quartet, informal addresses of welcome by Rev. Messrs. Little and Brooks, while Benj. Swett spoke for the Methodists, whose pastor was away. Rev. H. H. Bishop of Paris Hill gave the greetings of the mother church to the daughter who had outgrown her.

The assemblage was composed to a considerable degree of young people with whom the pastor is proving very popular.

Mrs. W. P. Maxim is visiting in Boston and Belgrade.

An extensive job of grading is being doneon Gary street.

Winfield and Geo. Cook were at home from Lisbon over Sunday.

Mrs. C. L. Buck and children returned from Cliff Island, Friday.

Fifty to sixty people went from here on the excursion to Oquossoc, Wednesday.

Walter P. Maxim has put the new Flintcote roofing on his house. He thinks he will like it.

L. S. Sessions has finished a job of grading on the Newhall lot in Riverside cemetery. The grade of the lot has lowered and a fine job was done.

Rev. H. L. Nichols of Monmouth preached at the Methodist church, Sunday, in exchange with the pastor. He gave an excellent discourse and his former parishioners were delighted to meet him.

ANDOVER.

James Clark.

James Clark died, Sept. 8th. He has been in failing health for some months. Mr. Clark has been a resident of Andover for more than fifty years. He was stage driver on the Bryant's Pond route to Andover some years. He married Mary, daughter of Dea. Samuel Poor, mother of the son who survives. His last wife was from New Hampshire and died several years ago. Mr. Clark would have been 90 years of age his next birthday. He leaves a son who with an invalid wife has cared for him in his declining years.

The funeral services were from his late home, Sept. 8th at 11 a. m, conducted by Rev. J. A. Waterworth assisted by Rev. G. B. Hannaford.

The September days are here bright and sunny. They are really more like summer than any we have experienced for a long time.

There was a heavy frost here, last week, which injured the tender vines. The corn, beans and squash vines were black as a result.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls Bragg will entertain the Universalist social at their home in South Andover on Tuesday evening, Sept. 16th.

The summer visitors are leaving us. Several left French's hotel, last week, and more return to the city, this week, O. B. Poor has a number yet.

Wm. Adams from the Institute of Technology of Boston and his brother are at French's Hotel. Mr. Adams family have been here for some time.

There was a political rally at Union Hall Saturday evening, Sept. 6. Arthur Sewall of Bath gave a very enthusiastic speech. Quite a large attendance.

The village schools commenced on Sept. 1st. Lillian Sampson from Kent's Hill teaches the high school, Alice Bedell has the grammar grade and Bertha Poor the primary. The rural schools commence, Sept. 8th.

Henry Poor and wife entertained the men who have been employed the past season, with their families Saturday afternoon, Sept. 6. There was an entertainment by the children, refreshments were served and upon leaving, each wife was presented with a gold piece of money.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

School Notes.

The high school and all Norway schools begin Monday, Sept. 22d.

At the Holt school, last Monday, Edna I. Brown registered 14 pupils.

Evelyn B. Partridge is to teach on Pike's Hill. Miss Bearce of Hebron has resigned the Noble's Corner school to teach at home, and the committee are looking for an applicant for the position thus made vacant.

Repairs are completed on the Lake house, a new floor having been laid and modern seats installed. At the lower primary the same work has been done, a new chimney built and many changes made in the room. The painters will give the last touches to the academy basement the first of next week.

Napoleon Labossier visited his friends in Berlin, the first of the week.

Mrs. J. F. Gardiner was taken seriously ill last week with a stomach trouble. She is improving rapidly.

Fernald Sawyer, who has been a teacher in one of the schools in the Philippines, has returned after a sickness of malarial fever to his home in Otisfield.

Wendell Rounds of South Paris finished work for F. P. Stone last week. He attends Bates College but for a couple week will teach for his sister at Leavitt Institute, Turner.

Real estate in the town of Norway on which the taxes for 1901 are unpaid will be advertised for sale. If you do not want your property in this list you should pay the taxes before Oct. 4.

M. W. Sampson recently shot a bald eagle that had a spread of wings six feet and ten inches. The bird was flying across the lake and was killed with number six shot. Mr. Sampson sold the eagle to George R. Howe and it is to be mounted by Nash.

Hon. Alfred S. Kimball and wife started, Thursday morning, for Des Moines, Iowa, to attend the session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. At Boston they will meet the delegates from New England and the Maritime Provinces of Canada, and from there the party will have two Pullman cars without change to Des Moines. On their return they will visit Chicago, the coal fields of Pennsylvania and Senaca lake. The party will be gone two weeks.

Willie, the seven-year-old son of Herbert Dyer, was with his mother and some other ladies in front of A. Edwards & Son's store, Saturday afternoon, when a dog belonging to J. F. Bolster came along. The boy spoke to and attempted to pat the dog which rushed upon him, knocking him over and injuring him severely. It is not clear whether the dog bit the boy or whether he was injured in falling upon stones, which latter is the opinion of the physician. The boy had a cut across nose and cheek requiring eleven stitches, and a bad swelling over the eyes, which is now going down. The boy is more comfortable and improving.

The People's Course of entertainments begins Wednesday evening, Sept. 24, when May Parker's Little Pickaninnies and Concert Company, including three genuine little darkies, May Parker, Florence Beckett a flute soloist, Bertha Webb, a widely known violinist, and Lillian Pierce, reader, appear for the first time before a Norway audience. This, and in fact each programme selected for the course is a gem and alone worth the price of a course ticket. All our people are buying course tickets. If you haven't purchased yours, secure one now. Seats reserved at Stone's, at 8 a. m., Saturday, Sept. 20.

Norway Municipal Court.

Charles E. Brown of North Paris was found guilty of intoxication, Tuesday. He was fined $1 and costs, which was paid.

Sixtieth Exhibition.

The sixtieth exhibition of Oxford County Agricultural Society will be held on the Fair Grounds between Norway and South Paris villages, next week Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, the 16th, 17th and 18th.

Everything goes to show that with fair weather this will add another to this society's long list of successful fairs. The cattle exhibit will doubtless be unusually large. One man, Moses Young of Hartford, has engaged twenty-five stalls. The hall exhibit promises to be fine. Three Granges will probably exhibit. Improvements have been made about the grounds, and every one knows that this society has one of the handsomest fair grounds in the State.

The Norway Band has been engaged to furnish music. There will be balloon ascensions, Wednesday and Thursday, by the Harold Cox Trans-Atlantic Co., acrobats and gymnasts, who will also entertain the people from the stage.

The Cattle Show Ball will occur on Wednesday evening at the Norway Opera House. Music, Stearns' Orchestra; hall director, Joseph Tallon.

This is the season when Oxford county people meet to enjoy a great field day, see their friends, welcome all of their former acquaintances living at a distance who may return, eat pop corn and other good things, ride on the merry-go-round, be entertained by the bright sayings of the fakirs, and incidentally see the exhibits of the only real agricultural show extant.

While we may not be able to greet you all personally, we shall be glad to have you come and visit the old Oxford County Fair.

Grand Army Men Talked To.

James L. Merrick of Waterville, department commander of the Grand Army, visited Harry Rust Post at its hall Wednesday and gave the members a talk of an hour's duration.

He urged increased activity on the part of comrades to add new names to the roster of the past, gave statistics showing the present membership of the Grand Army as compared with one year ago and complimented the boys in blue on the excellent showing they have made in years gone by.

The speaker referred to the gradual mustering out of the men who fought in the 60's, and recommended that an effort be made by members of the past to induce comrades who were not enrolled, to join. This year, he said, the members of Harry Rust Post placed flags on the graves of 185 soldiers. Commander Merrick intends to visit every Post in Maine, the one here being the eighth he has talked to.

C. M. Smith is having his buildings reshingled.

A number of our people went to Bethel fair, Wednesday.

The Grand Trunk Railway have an excursion to Montreal, Quebec and St. Anne de Beaupre, Monday, Sept. 15. Fare to Montreal or Quebec from Norway and South Paris is $7.25. Tickets good to return until Oct. 15.

Titcomb--Thurston.

Forrest D. Thurston of Errol, N. H., and Addie E. Titcomb were married, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. John A. Harding at Mr. Harding's residence. The wedding was a very quiet one only a very few relatives and intimate friends being present. A large number of suitable and useful presents were given them.

The bride is one of our well-known and beloved young ladies, who has taught many terms in our district schools. The groom is engaged in the lumbering business in Errol.

The newly united couple took the afternoon train to Portland, amid the usual active expressions of good wishes of such occasions.

The Election in Norway.

Monday, Sept. 8th, was a perfect day for election. The balloting passed off quietly, although there was considerable splitting of tickets, especially on the vote for sheriff.

The vote cast was 441, of which 32 were thrown out because the cross was not made at the head under the party name. On the vote for sheriff thirty-nine were rejected because the sticker was put on the name to be erased, instead of under it, and two were blank, being straight socialist tickets on which no nomination for sheriff was made.

The vote was counted and declared about 8 o'clock, at which time returns from Paris were received, also the Representative in the Waterford district.

New Aerial Feat.

The Wheeling, W. Va. Register has a notice of a big sensational feature of attraction for the State fair held in that city which is a so-called bomb ascension. Attached to a balloon is a large bomb, within which a man is hidden. At a certain height the bomb explodes and the aeronaut clinging to a parachute drops from the debris. This feature is being presented in large cities. The aeronaut is Walter Hazelton, aged 21 years, who is the son of John Hazelton, formerly of Norway, now of Westbrook.

Opening of Maine's Shooting Season.

With the arrival of midnight, Sunday, the fall shooting season in Maine will be open, the law on partridge, ruffed grouse and woodcock expiring at that time.

SOUTH WATERFORD.

Family Reunion at South Waterford.

The slogan sounded, and in response there gathered at the home of Mrs. Maria A. Houghton of Waterford, on Wednesday, Sept. 3, a large company of relatives and friends from far and near. They came laden with baskets and boxes which were well filled when they arrived, but whose contents were sadly depleted before night came. The day was perfect and all made merry while many willing hands prepared the tables, which were laden with the most delicious salads, hot rolls, cold meats, green corn, pickles, cheese, etc., with pies and cakes, galore, and for dessert ice cream, cake, bananas, coffee and peanuts.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, the gifts of friends who remembered the "aunties" and their love for the fragrant blossoms. After dinner the day was spent in pleasant chats on the piazza and lawn, and when the sinking sun warned us that night was coming, and the sad words "goodbye" must be spoken, we separated, all hoping that another year would again bring together the members of the cousin party.

Those present were Mrs. Maria A. Houghton, Miranda Billlings, Geo. C. Wheeler and wife, Luther Wheeler, Mrs. Nellie Billings, Frank Billings, Mrs. F. A. Plummer, Agnes and Carrie Plummer, all of Waterford; Mrs. Clara B. Noble of Winchester, Mass.; Mrs. C. F. Wheeler of Chatham, N. J.; Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Hamlin of Waltham, Mass.; Dr. W. E. Hamlin, Assistant Surgeon of the Soldiers' Home, Chelsea, Mass.; Edith Trask of Brockton, Mass.; Mrs. Guy Kimball, Ruth Kimball, Newton, Mass.; Mrs. A. S. Kimball, Mrs. Hiram Libby, Norway; G. O. Bailey, Mrs. Charles B. Gibbs, Fred Gibbs and wife, Donald and Gerald Gibbs, Geo. H. Billings and wife, Charles C. Hamlin and wife, Charlie Hamlin and Alice Florence Little, all of Bridgton; Leander S. Billings and wife of Paris.

SOUTH PARIS.

The Tolman Concert.

The concert given Friday evening at the Methodist church by Carl Jean Tolman, organist, the Alpha Ladies' Quartette of Lewiston and Harry Webber, reader, of Auburn, is universally pronounced one of the best ever given here. It had only a small house. The Alpha Quartette was so pleasing that it will probably be engaged for the closing concert in the lecture course which the Epworth League will put on this fall. The program, Friday evening, was as follows:

Offertoire de St. Cecilia—Batiste..Mr. Tolman
Concert Waltz—Buck.....Alpha Quartet
Reading—Selected.....Mr. Webber
March—Gounod.....Mr. Tolman
Volkslied—Geibel.....Alpha Quartet

The funeral services were held, Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. H. Little. Interment at Fairview cemetery,

Election Day in Paris.

The State election was very quiet here, Monday. About one-half the voters were out. Knots of voters were gathered here and there. In the forenoon numbers of the ballots were split but in the afternoon more ballots were cast straight.

The vote was counted and declared about half past seven. The Republican ticket ran 330 to 340, the Democratic 81 to 90 and the Prohibition 68 and 69. Flint ran behind getting 272, Shurtleff slightly ahead 92, Purington going considerably ahead with 98, and some ballots spoiled.

Reception to Pastor.

The Baptist society gave a reception to their pastor, Rev. H. S. Pinkham, Monday evening. There was a large number of people present. The vestry had a truly home like appearance with pictures and flowers, furniture, and rugs upon the floor. Coffee, cocoa and tea were served.

The first part of the evening was devoted to meeting the pastor. Following this was singing by the church quartet, informal addresses of welcome by Rev. Messrs. Little and Brooks, while Benj. Swett spoke for the Methodists, whose pastor was away. Rev. H. H. Bishop of Paris Hill gave the greetings of the mother church to the daughter who had outgrown her.

WOULD NOT INSURE HIM.

Insurance Companies refused to insure the Rev. J. W. Yerisley because he had kidney trouble.

This case is but one of thousands where the head of the house was refused insurance, because he had kidney trouble. Mr. Yeisley had given up in despair when some friend recommended Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and it cured him.

Mr. Yeisley writes:

"My kidneys and liver were in bad condition and I was anxious for relief. I had tried many remedies without success and when I bought a bottle of "Favorite Remedy," it was with but little faith in its ever helping me, but in a short time it effectively proved its merit. Perhaps the best proof I can give that it has completely cured me is to otate that I have since been accepted by four different life insurance companies."

The Rev. Mr. Yeisley is the pastor of the First Reformed Church of St. Paris, Ohio, and is as well the editor of the St. Paris Dispatch.

There is no question that Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is the best and surest medicine in the world for diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as the the weaknesses peculiar to women. It quickly relieves and cures inability to hold urine and the necessity of getting up a number of times during the night. It puts an end to that scalding pain when passing urine and corrects the bad effects of whiskey and beer.

All druggists sell Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy in the New 50 Cent Size and the regular $1.00 size bottles.

BUCKFIELD.

A Revolver Figured.

A tramp looking for forage stole a can of berries at Laforest Ingersoll's. A little later Mrs. F. P. Withing heard footsteps. Looking out she saw a bewhiskered man. Calling Phip and Joe, on going to the window they sang out, "What's wanted here?" Not a word or move. "Joe, get the revolver," says Phip. Then there was a bound and a race for life, while the snapping of an emptly revolver was kept up. "Don't shoot him, Joe, cried Phip," which sped him on in the darkness. In the morning the can of berries was found uninjured but the tramp had vamoused the ranch.

Warm weather has arrived. A hard old season thus far. A good hay crop, too cold for corn, but for some, if this weather continues, there will be a small crop. Some sowed Hungarian on their corn ground. It is doing nothing owing to cold weather. Potatoes are rotting badly, in some cases the whole crop. Our apples are all afflicted by the worm that dieth not. Tomatoes are nearly a failure, are now rusting. Beans fair. We have had green corn two weeks, reduced in size. This is better than with many. Orange hawk weed is looking fine after mowing off the second crop. We allow none to seed, but the day we find a stealthy patch we fight it, Sundays not excepted. I go into an adjoining non-resident pasture to fight it, but what is the use? Like the rum curse it marches on

Your step has lost elasticity because your blood has lost vitality, which Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore.

Frederick Nathaniel Frye

Died in Fryeburg, Aug. 27th.

Nearly four score years ago in Fryeburg was born the subject of this sketch. His father was a son of Lieut. Nathaniel Frye, who served in the Revolution from the beginning almost to the close, losing his hearing at the Battle of Monmouth and remaining deaf the rest of his life. His great-grandfather was Gen. Joseph Frye, a famous soldier in the French and Indian War. He was at the siege of Louisburg and passed through untold hardships at the capture of Fort William Henry, for which sufferings and eminent services the Commonwealth of Massachusetts gave him a township six miles square, called in his honor Fryeburg. Lieut. Caleb Swain, another ancestor, was an officer in the French War and one of the early settlers of the town, a man of distinguished ability in his class in Harvard College from which he was graduated. The mother of the late Mr. Frye was the daughter of Dr. Moses Chandler, who in extreme youth enlisted in the Revolution and served almost two years, becoming later one of the well known physicians in Fryeburg, and thus by his ancestry he was connected with the building of this nation.

Mr. Frye was one of three children, who, bereft of their father in their childhood, lived with their widowed mother at the old homestead—a place of great natural beauty, where the wide intervales stretched out to the encircling mountains and the river Saco runs its winding way. In his early manhood Mr. Frye spent several years in Washington with his uncle Nathaniel, who married the sister of Mrs. John Quincy Adams, and even then was distinguished for those rare social qualities that so strongly marked his later years.

Mr. Frye and his brother Caleb were among the prominent farmers in the county and the barns and granaries filled with the productions of the fields, and the sleek cattle and strong horses were evidence of their industry, economy and foresight. In the house reigned the virtues of a New England home, and its whole hearted hospitality attracted to it all sorts and conditions of men. Those who sat around the wide fireplace with its blazing logs in winter, in the long, low kitchen, will never forget the unique personality of the late Mr. Frye. Inimitable as a raconteur, droll in expression, vivid in description, quaint in gesture and turning words and phrases most cunningly, those of us who knew and loved him must feel that life lost much of its joy when his chair was left vacant in the home. "We shall not look upon his like again."

Mr. Eastman of New York spent several months in this house for many years finding in the farm life, with all its varied features, subjects for those pictures which have become so justly famous. In politics Mr. Frye was a Republican and positive in his opinions, although not offensive. He had a deep interest in the affairs of the State and nation and his mind was well storeo with information from varied studies.

The only sister passed away years ago, the aged mother followed and then the brother Caleb went, leaving him the last, born to the name in the town, given to his ancestor in 1762. His widow, Mrs. Martha Frye, daughter of Enos Day of Fryeburg, survives him.

In the nearby cemetery, where the sun shines brightly all the day and the purple shadows from the everlasting hills fall softly at eventide, among those who knew and loved him and those whom he knew and loved, the good citizen, the kind neighbor, the loyal friend, the faithful son, the devoted brother, the loving husband was laid to rest.

Horace Garey.

The funeral services of Horace Garey who died last Thursday were held at his late home on Howe Hill last Saturday, Rev. Mr. Pillsbury of Bethel officiating. Mr. Garey was born, Dec. 25, 1817, being 85 years, 8 months and three days old at the time of his death.

He was married to Lydia A. West, 55 years ago and his was the first death in the family. His wife, three daughters, Mrs. Fannie Burnell of East Hiram, Mrs. Annie Wiggin of Sanford, Mrs. Nellie Cross and one son, W. H. Garey of this place, survive him.

Mrs. Ann Libby, Mrs. Dolly Buck and Jennie Coffin of this village very kindly showed their sympathy for the family of Horace Garey by furnishing beautiful flowers the day he was laid to rest.

Mrs. E. C. Burnell from East Hiram returned to her home last week.

Carroll Brewster of Curtis Corner is visiting his schoolmate, Harry Swift.

Mrs. Emma Felt took her niece, Ruby Perkins, to Lewiston for treatment for her eyes.

Edith Emery, who has been at home for a short vacation, returned to G. R. Wiley's at Bethel last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Swift and two little daughters went to Curtis Corner to visit Mrs. Swift's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rand.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Cole are taking care of his mother, Mrs. Susan K. Libby, who has been confined to her bed with a bad liver trouble.

E. H. Wiggin and daughter, Mrs. Albert Ford and son Harold came up from Sanford, Aug. 30, to attend the funeral of the late Horace Garey. They returned home, Aug. 31, accompanied by Mrs. Wiggin who had been with her father since June 19.

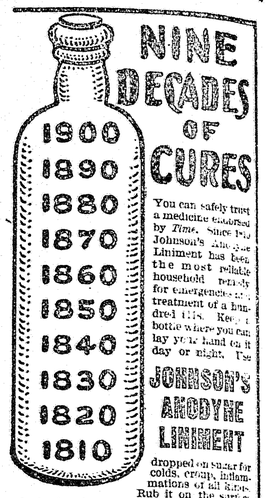

An Encouraging Spell.

The spell of hot weather the first of September encouraged the corn raisers whose name is legion in the Saco valley. They were feeling pretty blue and wondering how they could pay for the fertilizer used.

The Valley Fruit Farm.

One of the lovely days, recently, your correspondent and family visited Pleasant Valley Fruit Farm in Woodstock, owned by F. L. Wyman. We found our genial host and hostess with a score of pickers harvesting their crop of blackberries. They have for general labor on their farm their son Perley and Bert Day with Mrs. Day employed to do the general housework as Mrs. Wyman is kept busy overseeing the pickers and keeping record of each picker's work.

As this is the only farm in this vicinity devoted to small fruits we were much interested in the method of handling and marketing the large crop of strawberries, raspberries, blackberries and other small fruits, and the quantity of each raised this year. 700 quarts of strawberries, 500 of raspberries and an estimated crop of 200 bushels of blackberries, or 6400 quarts, sounds large, but that is the size of the actual crop grown by Mr. Wyman.

He has a farm of about 60 acres and on it there are 1000 apple trees, 40 pear and 100 plum trees, nice thrifty looking trees mostly in bearing. Two years ago he had 700 barrels of apples and this year he thinks he will get about 300 barrels and 20 bushels of plums, but the pear trees are not bearing this year.

Taking out the cost of marketing and picking the strawberries net him about 11½ cents, raspberries 7 cents, and blackberries 5½ cents, so his net income from these three will be for strawberries $80, raspberries $35 and blackberries $35, besides his plums, apples, gooseberries, currants and general farm crops. Quite an income for a small farm isn't it?

Mr. Wyman will pay out for labor this year $500, paying 1½ cents per quart for picking strawberries and blackberries and 2 cents for raspberries, employing from 15 to 25 hands, mostly women and girls. Besides this Mrs. Wyman has put up 200 cans of raspberries and about 200 of other fruit, which are all sold to city parties. Mr. Wyman has one of the nicest fruit cellars around here, holding 500 barrels and which can easily be made to hold a thousand.

We spent one of our pleasantest days with Mr. and Mrs. Wyman and came home well pleased with our outing, and if any one wishes to see what can be done with small fruits we advise them to visit Pleasant Valley Farm.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Safety Rail Joint Company

HOME OFFICE

CHENEY BUILDING, 26 CONGRESS STREET, RUMFORD FALLS, MAINE.

THE SAFETY RAIL JOINT COMPANY Shares will be 25 cents within four weeks, at the present rate they are now going. May be much sooner.

No industrial investment has ever before struck such a quick responsive chord.

No industrial investment has ever had such a vast business interest so completely in its grasp.

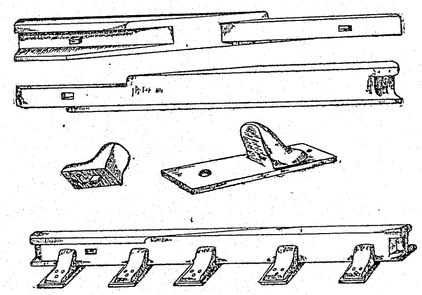

It needs no special genius to see the amazing possibilities of the SAFETY RAIL JOINT.

Thousands of Rail Road companies are anxiously waiting for it.

And so it goes. Not a day passes that does not bring definite offers of business to the company from men who have critically examined this safety rail joint.

This Is The Joint

No Bolts
No Side Plates
No Sagging
No Spreading of Rails.
Stronger than Center of Rail.

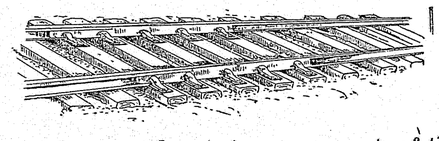

No Low Joints
No Jolting
Lasts Longer
Better In Use
Cheaper than any other Joint ever made.

The advantages over the old form of joint are so marked that no one has the least difficulty in realizing them. Women are buying with men with the same enthusiasm for the new joint, and desire to invest in the stock of the company.

Well they may. This is a business proposition with every element of chance cut out. Here the situation.

206,189 miles of railroad in the United States.
$200.00 saved on each mile of track per year.
$41,337,800.00 total savings to Railroad Companies per year.
They can't get along without this Safety Rail Joint.

Our Company can have at least ten per cent. of this vast saving to divide as dividends, which is $4,133,780.00 and very much more when adopted by all, which is sure to come.

Magnitude of the Business.

It is unlimited, as rails are laid all over the known world. Both electrics and steam roads need and must have this joint.

James A. Tuell of Sumner has filed a petition in bankruptcy.

You can get your horse shod at McKusick's blacksmith shop, Lovell, new all round for 75 cents and 90 cents according to the size and weight of shoe. See ad in another column.

George G. Shirley of Fryeburg has been nominated coroner; James B. Stevenson, Rumford Falls, trial justice; Willis R. Rolfe, Casco, Albert J. Stearns, Norway, justices of the peace.

The earnings of the Portland & Rumford Falls railroad in excess of all charges and dividends are $75,856.76; last year, $34,049.06. The Rumford Falls & Rangeley Lakes railroad, $6,229, 23; last year, $6,991.57.

The Naples man, Isaac W. Powers, who was reported missing, a few weeks since, has been arrested in Rochester, N. H., for bigamy. It will be remembered that he went to Portland to draw $3,500 from the bank to pay for a farm. The description published in the papers brought letters from other wives in the eastern part of the state. Powers is about 60 years old. He has lived in Naples but a short time.

WEST BETHEL.

Annual Lawn Party.

The Union Chapel Aid Society held their annual lawn party in Grover's Birches, Sept. 5, afternoon and evening. The weather being cool there was not as large a number as usual, but a fair crowd was present who came for a good time and the full plan was carried out.

There was a ball game between Bethel club and West Bethel, the West Bethel being the winning party after which the bicycle parade came off. Their wheels were nicely decorated and all looked fine. Among the number we saw Mona Martin of Bethel on her nice wheel.

The people were called to the speakers stand where Rev. N. H. Springer presiding in his usual good manner made a few remarks, then introduced Rev. F. E. Barton and Rev. Mr. Gleason, each making very appropriate remarks.

Attention was drawn to the supper table, C. F. Brown was at the entrance in his usual good humor. Harden's baked beans were as good as ever and a nice supper was served satisfactorily to all. Candy and ice cream were for sale, also a guess cake sold for a good price. A good time, and a good sum of money added to the treasury.

Mrs. Frank Coffin is at work for Mrs. L. E. Bean.

Harry Fothergill of Berlin was at W. Farwell's, this week.

H. P. Dennison and wife went to Lancaster on a visit recently.

S. W. Potter received a visit from his son George, wife and daughter from Bridgton.

Ernest Rollins has returned home from Dixfield where he has been for a few weeks.

Mrs. L. C. Bean and Hazel Bean have returned from Portland and are stopping at her home in this village.

Ed Pike and sister, Mrs. L. E. Allen, went to Groveton, N. H., last week to attend a funeral of their brother, John Pike.

FRYEBURG.

Charlie Burbank arrived in town, Tuesday.

Very small vote polled, Monday, considering the perfect weather.

You can buy two pounds of good Rio coffee for 25 cents at H. H. Burbank's. *

Marion Barker and Etta Burbank have gone to Gorham to enter the Normal School.

Robbie Evans, Ned Page and Herbert Spring returned from Kineo, Monday, where they have been employed as bell boys.

Olive Eaton is moving into Dr. Harris' house opposite the Oxford. Her father and mother from Stow are coming to live with her, the coming winter.

The recent frost injured crops quite severely in this town. In some localities however it was very light. The cornshop opened the middle of this week.

Arthur Ward is at home for a few days. He will return to his school in Orono next week. He spent most of his vacation working at the barber's trade in Oldtown.

NORTH NORWAY.

C. G. French's son Leon is quite sick.

Potatoes are rotting badly. Some will not get a third of a crop.

O. W. H. Judkins and wife attended fair at Bethel, Thursday.

Frost last Friday night did not do much damage up this way.

J. K. French is picking and shelling his lima beans for the market.

E. O. French is putting up gravenstein apples he has bought in that vicinity.

Mrs. Sidney Foster returned home, Monday. Mr. F. was not able to come just now.

Aldro A. French and wife from Attleboro, Mass., are visiting at Amos French's.

Mrs. A. N. Frost is housekeeper for Mrs. Merriam while she and her daughter are at Falmouth Foreside for a few weeks.

Will Towne and wife who have been visiting Mrs. S. J. Caldwell left for Massachusetts, the 9th. They visited their aunt, Mrs. Newell Young, the 8th, at West Paris.

The State Election.

Monday was a beautiful day for the election, but the vote was not heavy. The total vote cast is about fifteen per cent less than two years ago. Governor John F. Hill is reelected by a plurality of 26,000. The Congressmen are each reelected by about the same vote as the general ticket. William M. Pennell of Brunswick, Democratic candidate, is elected by a plurality of nearly 2,000 in Cumberland county. Rev. Charles S. Cummings of Auburn, Republican, is elected by a plurality of about 579. The State senate has one Democrat, and that party gains in the house of representatives. The Republican ticket in Oxford county is elected by about 1,585 plurality. Edgar L. Flint has 1,332 plurality with two towns not in. Bertrand G. McIntire of Waterford, Democrat, is elected from his district by 113 majority. The other six representatives from Oxford county are Republican.

The detailed vote is as follows:

EAST WATERFORD.

The city boarders have begun to scatter and most of them have returned to their homes and business.

James H. Dixon has sold his store, goods and dwelling to Philip Rolfe and will move to Massachusetts in a few weeks.

Owing to shortage of water the big engine at the dowel mill is fired up and engineer Scribner has returned from Albany.

Steamer Pennesseewassee has discontinued running regular trips except the 2 p. m. and Sunday trips will be run warm days, and special trips.

The effort being made for rural free mail delivery seems to be met with violent opposition throughout this part of the town, all being well pleased with our mail service as it is.

The packing factory of the H. F. Webb Co. was started up, Wednesday morning, with work on putting up beans. Corn packing will begin in about a week probably. The pack will be small.

Mark Tapley by odd jobs is clearing up and beautifying the little grove back of his residence, making a most delightful resort during warm afternoons, but not greatly needed during this season.

Chauncey Ames is spending his vacation in Portland. He intends visiting the Eye and Ear Infirmary before returning, where he spent a long time several years since, being at that time nearly totally blind.

The election passed off very pleasantly, the general interest being confined to local matters and to all appearances all being of the same mind without a dissenting voice, and highly pleased with the result though greatly surprised at its magnanimity.

The fall term of school commenced on Monday of this week under the instruction of Annie M. Jenne of South Paris. This is Miss Jenne's fifth term in this school with a largely increased attendance each term, and now reported the largest school in town.

WEST PARIS.

Services Till New Year's.

Ernest M. Holman, who has been spending his vacation here, has returned to his school at Bates College. He has kindly consented to continue preaching here each successive Sunday until New Year, coming up Saturday and returning to Lewiston on Monday morning. He is a very earnest, Christian young man and liked by all, therefore all will be glad to know of his intention to remain awhile longer.

Quite a lot from here attended the State fair at Lewiston, last week.

George Aldrich and family from Bethel have moved into the rent in the Grange building.

Will Emery has his blacksmith shop on Greenwood street nearly done and has begun to take in work.

Mr. F. S. Farnum has gone to Boston and New York for fall and winter millinery styles. Nina B. Bryant is helping at her rooms while she is away.

Mrs. E. H. Brown and son Charles from Rumford Falls spent part of last week with relatives here. Mr. Brown came with them and stayed over Sunday.

Dr. O. K. Yates is having an addition put on to the west side of his stable. Hammond & Son from Paris Hill are doing the job. J. E. Murch of South Paris is helping them.

Mrs. Walter Carr and two sons, Homer and Rupert, of Yarmouth, stopped off here, last Friday, and spent the night with Mrs. R. A. Rich. They were on their way home from a visit to relatives in Canada.

Mrs. Mary Bradbury has been getting her store ready and expects to open a new line of millinery next Saturday. Kathleen S. Odonald from Bingham has come to work for her. Miss Odonald is a graduate from the Bangor Millinery School.

SUMNER.

Edmund C. Bowker.

Edmund C. Bowker, an esteemed citizen of this place, died Sept. 2d, after many months of suffering with heart trouble, aged 70 years and 1 month. He was a soldier in the Civil War, having served 3 years, 9 months and 20 days in the First Maine Cavalry.

Funeral services were held at his late home, Friday at 10 o'clock, conducted by Rev. J. H. Little of South Paris. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful, showing the esteem in which the deceased was held in the community. Burial at East Sumner.

He leaves a wife and two children, Willie E., who lives at home, and Mabel, wife of Elmer Roberts of Sumner, three grandchildren, three brothers and one sister.

T. L. Foster has gone to Turner to work.

Ethel Morrill has gone to Buckfield to work for Mrs. I. W. Shaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bonney and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Ford attended State fair, Wednesday.

Mrs. Lilla Spaulding and children, who have been visiting relatives in Massachusetts, have returned home.

L. O. Brackett and wife and two daughters of Auburn came up to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law, E. C. Bowker.

BROWNFIELD.

Vina Lane is home for a short vacation.

No enthusiasm over election in this town.

Mrs. Annie Linscott recently purchased a fine team.

Mrs. Drusilla Chapman moved to Fryeburg, this week.

Mrs. W. H. Scranton is at her old home for a short time.

Mrs. Avilda Page and two sons are visiting her mother, Mrs. W. C. Rowe.

Oxford County Pomona.

There was a large attendance at Pomona Grange at Bolster's Mills, Tuesday. "There is lots of fun going to Pomona," said one of the members, "you meet so many people from all around and they are all glad to see you. Then you hear so many bright and witty things." There was a class of five in the fifth degree. The sweet corn problem was discussed and plans were made to still further consider the matter. Mrs. Ezekiel Sylvester of Otisfield read a paper on the "All round Woman," and Mrs. O. G. Curtis of Paris on "The Leaks in the Household." These subjects were both ably treated. Good music was furnished and the dinner hour was thoroughly enjoyed.

Scrofula

Few are entirely free from it.

It may develop so slowly as to cause little if any disturbance during the whole period of childhood.

It may then produce irregularity of the stomach and bowels, dyspepsia, catarrh, and marked tendency to consumption before manifesting itself in much cutaneous eruption or glandular swelling.

It is best to be sure that you are quite free from it, and for its complete eradication you can rely on

Miss M. Parris and Edward L. Parris, jr., left this week, Miss Parris for a round of visits, Master "Bunt" to join friends at Fishkill, N. Y.

J. Curtis Clark who has spent the summer at Paris with his aunt, Mrs. L. M. Brown, is to take a course of study at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Harry G. Wright of Salem, Mass., joined his wife and child here last week, for a few days. Mrs. Wright has spent the summer at her father's, B. S. Doe's.

Lewis M. Brown and family went to New York, last week, for a short visit to Mr. Brown's daughter, Mrs. Jacob. Miss Brown will remain with her sister. Mr. and Mrs. Brown returned the last of the week.

There was a family reunion at A. G. Parlin's on Wednesday. Fletcher Parlin and family of South Paris, D. D. Small and family of Sumner, Dennis Parlin and wife of Portland, and Henry W. Parlin of Paris were present.

Mrs. Jarley, the great Mrs. Jarley was at Paris, last Friday, and exhibited her wonderful wax works for the benefit of the Universalist circle. Mrs. Jarley looked very much like Mrs. H. W. Lyon in a disguise and was assisted by a negro and a Dutchman, who might have been like J. M. Thayer and H. W. Lyon, jr. For a command of language and a "nice derangement of epitaphs" the descriptions of the various "figgers" was something wonderful.

HARRISON.

Badly Injured.

As Lyman Shedd was coming from Norway, last Friday, with a load of grain, one of the whiffletrees broke, letting the neck yoke off. The pole dropped and frightened the horses, which ran and breaking the pole threw Mr. Shedd out and dragged him for quite a distance, bruising him quite badly.

C. N. Wentworth has bought a horse and harness of Lyman Shedd and a new carriage of G. L. Hancock, making a nobby team.

While threshing for W. H. Briggs, last Friday, one of D. M. Chute's horses kicked Lewis Briggs and Stephen Pembroke, injuring both of them quite badly.

A. C. Davis of Harrison and C. B. Ames of Waterford started, last Wednesday, for a ten days trip on their wheels, taking in the State fair, Portland, Old Orchard, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Caswell visited Bear Mountain Grange at South Waterford and listened to a very fine programme, after which there was a treat of ice cream. A jolly good time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Briggs have been tending the State Fair at Lewiston.

Mrs. Hattie Peabody and two sons from Cape Elizabeth are visiting Mrs. Lillian Cole.

Mrs. Anna Dudley and daughter Mildred are attending the Baptist yearly meeting at Buckfield Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Rev. Mr. Whitman is spending his vacation among friends in Oxford county. He baptised one candidate Sunday morning in the waters of Crystal lake.

Mrs. Blanche Small and son visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Martin, last week, leaving, Friday, for Rangeley where she and her husband will have charge of the Rangeley high school, the fall and winter term.

BETHEL.

Bethel Fair.

The town fair opened well Tuesday. The horse trotting and ox drawing in the afternoon were exciting. Hawkers and peddlers were never so plenty. A heavy rain Tueseay night made it a little unfavorable but it cleared off Wednesday. Many strangers were in town at the fair.

The exhibit this year at Riverside Park is one of the best ever held. A fine field of horses were entered. The exhibit of neat stock was superior to that of many years past. A good exhibit was made in the hall in the line of vegetables and fruits, and the midway had more than the usual variety of attractions of that department.

Among the entries of live stock that were noticeable were these:

President Hastings, a dozen of Angora goats.

C. F. Valentine, herd of cows and heifers. Two thoroughbred and eight grade Jerseys.

H. N. Upton, one grade Jersey cow, one thoroughbred cow and one thoroughbred bull.

A. Vanderkerckhoven, one grade Jersey cow, one thoroughbred calf. One pen Mammoth Bronze turkeys; one pen each Partridge Cochin fowl, White Cochin, White Wyandottes, Piley game chickens, Pekin ducks, Rose comb Brown Leghorns.

Dr. Twaddle, pen of buff Leghorns.

A pen of Plymouth Rocks, owners name not given.

E. W. Barker, two grade Durham cows, one calf.

Louis Spinney, grade Hereford cow and calf.

J. M. Philbrook, 2 yoke oxen, 3 yoke steers, all whiteface. J. L. Thurston, pair 4-year-old oxen, girth 7-6. L. A. York, yoke of black steers. A. R. Merrill, one pair 2-year-olds, and one 2-year-old grade Durham heifer. A. M. Carter, three pairs Hereford steers, one pair Durham steers, one thoroughbred Durham bull, one 2-year-old Hereford bull, five cows and four heifers. D. A. Cummings, pair matched oxen. F. L. Edwards, one pair matched Holstein calves, one pair oxen, Holstein bull calf, Holstein yearling bull, grade Hereford bull, five Holstein cows, Holstein heifer, two Jersey cows.

Dr. J. A. Twaddle, white Chester boar. J. McKenzie, Berkshire pig. T. B. Jewell, white Chester sow with five pigs.

In the hall are two tapestry paintings by Mrs. Percie Daley, five oil paintings by Ethel Hastings, Newry, eight by Edith Hastings, Beteel, three by Mrs. T. H. Durell, four by Mrs. Dana B. Hall.

Rugs by eight ladies, crazy quilts in intricate and beautiful patterns, attractive and artistic sofa pillows and novelties, photographs of Bethel and vicinity, curios from Alaska and some choice specimens of hand carving are attractively displayed.

The White Sewing Machine Company have a large exhibit. Chairs, couches, etc., are shown by the Bethel Manufacturing Co. J. A. Thurston shows willow rockers.

W. A. Foster has 55 varieties of apples. D. A. Cummings 34 of apples, 2 kinds of pears, 3 of plums. E. P. Grover 28 varieties of apples, plums and pears, also squash, cabbage, beets, turnips, potatoes and corn.

A. Van Den Kerchoven, cranberries; Mrs. A. W. Barker, kohlrabi, cabbage; H. E. Grover, cabbage; H. S. Hastings, cabbage, potatoes, beets and carrots; N. Trask, potatoes, onions, beets, cabbage and corn; R. Clough, potatoes, onions, cabbage and butter; Mrs. E. W. Barker, butter; Charlotte Cummings, cheese.

Wednesday there was a great crowd steadily growing through the day, and 2500 people are estimated to have been on the grounds.

The races—Four horses entered the first race with Chub at the pole, Chick second, Dr. Jack third, and Hinette fourth. The race was a lively one, and was followed with much interest, though it was quite evident from the first that an easy victory would go to Dr. Jack. The following is the summary:

2.50 Stake Race, Purse, $200.

Dr. Jack, A. H. Jack	1	1	1
Chub, F. H. Bumps	2	2	2
Chick, F. H. Wilkinson	3	3	3
Hinette, C. W. Hall	4	4	4

Time, 2.29, 2.31, 2.31½.

In the second race four horses were started with Meader Boy at the pole. In the third heat Anodyne came in second, but was placed back for running. It was a sharp contest and resulted as follows:

2.25 Class, Purse, $150.

Meader Boy, F. P. Fogg	1	1	1
Promoter, W. F. Kendall	2	3	3
Anodyne, L. U. Bartlett	3	2	4
Stoneham, Geo. Newcomb	4	4	2

Time, 2.25½, 2.25½, 2.27½.

Dr. Romanzo F. Cross.

Romanzo F. Cross died suddenly at his home in Lewiston Tuesday morning. He was formerly of Bethel and son of the late Franklin Cross of Albany. The remains were brought to Bethel Thursday for interment in the family lot in the Steam Mill district.

Dr. Cross had been engaged as usual in his practice up to the day of his death. He was a man of wide acquaintance and prominent in spiritualistic circles. He and his wife were mediums, conducting meeting regularly at their home in Lewiston.

A brother, the Rev. Wellington Cross, a well known pastor in Foxcroft, a dozen years ago, passed away with equal suddenness. He was taken ill at noon and died at one o'clock.

Dr. Cross is survived by a wife, formerly Jennie Turner of New Bedford, Mass., and whom he married nearly 30 years ago, also by three children, Mrs. A. I. Bean of Horton street, Lewiston, Lucy Cross of Lewiston, who lived at home and Franklin Cross, a bright young man who is a member of the class of '03 at Dartmouth.

Dr. Cross also leaves three sisters and three brothers, Mrs. C. S. Cole and Mrs. James Kimball, Albany; Mrs. L. A. E. Holt of East Candia, N. H., Jesse Cross of Lewiston; Henry Cross of Bethel and Albert Cross of Boston.

The town meeting was lightly attended only 262 votes being cast.

E. S. Kilborn has returned from his Pacific coast trip and reports an interesting time.

Archer Grover went to Orono to commence a year's work at the University of Maine as a physical trainer.

The jurors from Bethel at the October court are, grand, N. F. Brown; traverse, W. H. Merrow and W. L. Chapman.

Three graduates of Gould Academy go to University of Maine this fall, viz. Everett Brown, Alton Richardson and Carelson.

Marshall Inman and son have sold their farms on the Rabbit road to F. L. Edwards and bought the William Clark and Lyman Russell places at Walker's Mills, South Bethel.

Many of our people went to the annual grove fair at West Bethel last Friday. The weather was cold but conditions were much improved when sitting down to the supper table loaded with piping hot beans, baked in the ground by an old soldier of the Rebellion, George W. Harden.

Grover Hill.

Sadie Mason is teaching at West Bethel Flat.

Galon Wheeler is visiting at Peter Wheeler's.

Amy Wheeler visited at Levi Bartlett's, Wednesday.

Bion Browne and Levi Browne were in Lewiston, last week.

Marion Bennett is teaching in Greenwood again this term.

The several students from this place have returned to Goulds.

Frances Browne was at True Browne's one afternoon recently.

Mrs. Hattie Wheeler gave a quilting party, one afternoon recently.

Bessie Mills of Mason made several calls in this section, one day last week.

John Ring has resumed his duties at Herbert Ring's after several weeks rest.

EAST BUCKFIELD.

Ex-Sec. John D. Long Entertains His Neighbors.

Ex-Sec. John D. Long and family went to their home in Hingham, Mass., last Friday. A very enjoyable evening was spent on Sept. 2 at John D. Long's home on North Hill. His servant gave a barn party to the neighbors and it was a perfect success. Dancing and plays were played. Bert Hutchinson furnished music. Everybody seemed to enjoy the evening very much. We noticed Mr. Long was on dancing. Those that were there, the ages were from seventy years to four weeks. At eleven o'clock a bountiful treat was served of four kinds of ice cream and all kinds of cake and apples. At some after twelve, the company bid the Longs a good-night, saying they had enjoyed the evening very much, wishing them the best of wishes and hoping to see them another year.

Justus Mason and his hired man went to the State fair, Wednesday.

Last Friday night, there was quite a heavy frost, doing damage to the corn on low land.

Solon C. Little's brother, V. P. Little, from Chelsea, Mass., has been spending a few days with Solon.

WOOL CARDING.

Through Aug., Sept. and Oct. the wool business will claim a large share of our time and attention. We pay the highest cash price for fleece wool. If you have carding to be done you will do well to have it done while the weather is warm, we can do better work, and wool will waste less from flying. Wool left with G. A. Cole, Norway, will be taken to the mill and returned without extra charge.

The demand for butter milk at Waterford Creamery is so great that we feel it our duty to advance the price to 1c per gallon to those who do not furnish cream to this factory. We have only one mower left now. If you will need one another year it will pay you to see this one and secure the big trade that is offered.

NORWAY AND VICINITY

Reunion of the Class of '91.

The class of '91 of the local high school held a reunion, last Friday evening, September fifth, at the home of Mrs. Moses P. Stiles.

This was the first time for nine years that the members of the class have been able to gather and in a united way to think upon the days of "Auld Lang Syne." It was an occasion to be long remembered in the annals of the class, not only on account of the large number present, but also because of the spirit of jollity which seemed to pervade the house. After the usual greetings had been exchanged, all joined in a "Tea Party" in which Dr. Bartlett was the most successful participant. The refreshments of ice cream and cake and fruit lemonade came as a happy relaxation after such mental exertion. Later the hostess was fortunate in securing the services of two lightning artists who showed such skill in harmony drawing that it was almost impossible to tell to which of the people present the several portraits belonged.

All declared the evening a perfect success, and when, at a late hour, after singing the class ode and "God be with you till we meet again," the guests took their leave, it was with a feeling of reluctance and with the hope that next year like this will bring a reunion with the circle still unbroken.

Those present besides the host, hostess and Master Richard Stiles were:—Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Bartlett, Mrs. Evis Allen Kimball, Jennie P. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Owen P. Brooks, Solomon I. Jackson, Mercy E. Millett, Sadie E. Millett, Florence M. Paragard. Mr. A. L. Proctor, Mrs. Lizzie Whitmarsh Sampson, Mrs. A. C. Tracy and Martha D. Tracy.

An executive committee, consisting of the following members, was appointed to make arrangements for a reunion, next year:—Mrs. Lizzie Whitmarsh Sampson, Mrs. H. L. Bartlett, Jennie P. Baker, Owen P. Brooks, Sadie E. Millett.

Mrs. C. D. Waters is visiting at Dr. B. F. Bradbury's.

Mamie Griffin of Berlin is doing table work at the Beals House.

A. F. Andrews & Sons will have another load of horses arrive from Iowa, Wednesday, Sept. 17.

Mr. and Mrs Ludwig Gerhard and children of Boston are visiting Mrs. Gerhard's sister, Mrs. Mary Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Hutchins of Rochester, N. H., are taking a two weeks' vacation among relatives at Norway.

Mrs. Forrest Durell of Lynn, Mass., and Mrs. Carrie P. Latham of Pownal visited at Mrs. S. H. Wetherbee's, last week.

Chas. G. Brown of Rumford Falls has engaged to chop wood in Otisfield for A. F. Andrews & Sons. He commenced work this week.

Mrs. H. L. Horne, the organist at the Congregationalist church, was not able to play Sunday. Sarah L. Staples played most acceptably. Mrs. Horne recently had a surgical operation for the removal of a small tumor. She is getting along finely.

Ernest Drake of Haverhill, Mass., is in Norway. Mr. Drake's health is quite poor and he has been at Dr. Chas. Johnston's at Kittery Point for several weeks. He has a cough and has had hemorrhages. He is to camp by Lake Pennesseewassee, hoping that the out of doors life will prove beneficial.

SWEDEN.

Encounter with a Hornet's Nest.

John A. Smith, perhaps better known as Jack, had a severe encounter with a nest of hornets, one day last week while trouting on Dock brook. He was accompanied by Charles Stone, his brother Frank and two gentlemen whose names we have forgotten. Jack has always claimed heretofore that he could handle bees of any description with perfect safety. He is a very tender hearted man or at least has been before his encounter with the bees, last week, and has been known several times to help them out of a pan of milk and out of spiderwebs and always let them go unharmed with the remark, "I always loved to hear the hum of a bee." The fight that Jack put up with the bees, so we hear, was a severe one. His English grit would not let him run until he was outnumbered a thousand to one. He succeeded in guarding his face extra well but the part of his body that occupied the wagon seat on his way to the fishing brook was so badly stung that he had to ride home a part of the way in a standing position.

Mrs. Alice G. Briggs has been sick with tonsilitis.

The corn crop looks quite promising. Potatoes are rusting quite badly.

Walter E. Gordon bought six or seven cows of Howard Hilton.

Mrs. Hattie Mansfield of Salem, Mass., called to see her father, Winthrop Smart, last Saturday, Aug. 30th.

Edgar Tower and son are haying on lower Kezar meadow. They haul some very large loads with their four horses.

We hear that Judge A. H. Walker, Harry Virgin, esq., E. C. Hastings, esq., and Hon. A. P. Gordon are spending a few days at their camp on the shore of lower Kezar. They anxiously waited for Sept. 1st "to gather them in," the ducks.

GILEAD.

There was a musical sociable at E. R. Bennett's Cloverdale Farm.

Mrs. Cordelia Watson of Randolph has been visiting friends in town.

Annie Watson of Portland is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Richardson.

Mrs. Samuel Wheeler has returned to Her home in Gorham, with her little daughter.

George Richardson of Deering with his family visited his brother, John Richardson.

NORTH LOVELL.

Several from this place went to the ball game at the Harbor, Saturday.

C. A. Garcelon and Sam Bert and a friend arrived from Chicago, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kendall and Abbie McKeen visited relatives at Stow, Saturday and Sunday.

FRYEBURG.

Evans-Purrinton.

The marriage of Virginia Wilson Evans to Charles Fessenden Purrinton was the occasion of a very pretty wedding. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David R. Sewell of York. The presence of the aged clergyman was of especial interest as he married the parents of both bride and groom.

The Congregational church, the scene of the wedding, was beautifully decorated with ferns, frost flowers and asters. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of relatives and friends. Mrs. Alberta Abbott played the wedding march from Lohengrin, accompanied by Louise Abbott, violin. The bride wore a beautiful white gown and carried white roses. Alice Evans, gowned in pink attended the bride and Edward Carr of Boston was best man. Mary Hastings and Bertha Warren were flower girls. The ushers were Robie Evans, Fred Fife, Herbert Pushard and Ralph Cousins.

At the conclusion of the ceremony lunch was served at the home of Andrew H. Evans, the party including relatives and intimate friends of Mr. and Mrs. Purrinton. The rooms were decorated with wild flowers and autumn leaves.

The bride has been for several years principal of the Kindergarten Training school at Lewiston. She has many friends in this town, which has always been her home, and many good wishes go with her to the new one. Mr. and Mrs. Purrinton will be at home Wednesdays after November 12, at South Easton, Mass.

BRYANT'S POND.

Grange Fair.

The Grange fair on Thursday and Friday evenings, Aug. 28 29, was a decided success both socially and financially. On the left of the entrance to Grange Hall, Mrs. Lillian Luxton and Georgia Bisbee supplied ice cream and cake from a booth tastefully decorated with yellow and white bunting and evergreens.

The next booth draped in pure white and surmounted by an evergreen star held a fine assortment of fancy work and was presided over by Mrs. Stella Bacon and Lena Felt. Joining this was a booth handsomely decorated with flowers, where Leah Sweetser and Mrs. Oneiday Davis sold many mysterious bundles. Next to this came the fish pond finely decorated with blue bunting and crowned with a fine picture of salmon trout. Here Mrs. Jennie Cole and Mrs. Georgia Davis supplied the hooks of the bashful youths with babies' slippers and tiny doll babies, and delighted the children with pincushions, jumping jacks, etc.

At the right of the entrance, Mrs. J. L. Bowker and Maud Stevens supplied the thirsty people with punch and candies from a finely decorated booth. Near this was the "post-office" surmounted by a picture of "Uncle Sam," and through the wicket peeped the smiling faces of Mrs. Martha Dudley and Edith Cushman, who were ready to supply every one with letters.

Mrs. D. A. Cole occupied the next booth with aprons of every style imaginable. Joining this was the "Klondike" presided over by Bertha Stevens and Lizzie Sweetser. Here for a nickel one could enter the mine and dig for treasures untold in a box of sawdust.

The handsome silk quilt on exhibition was won by G. L. Cushman by making the nearest guess to the number of pieces it contained. A fine outline quilt was won by James L. Bowker by guessing the number of beans in a bottle. Mrs. Earl Farrington won a cotton crazy quilt by guessing the number of kernels of corn on a cob.

Quite an exciting contest arose between D. A. Cole and Emerson Billings as to which was the handsomer man. The votes were one cent each and on counting up it was found that each had the same number of votes, and a prize of a necktie was awarded to each. The greatest contest, however, was over a doll, the contestants being little Margerie Jordan and little Miss Jackson. The prize was secured by the latter. This contest brought in over forty-five dollars.

A ladies' quartette consisting of Mrs. Cora Perham, soprano; Myrtle Bacon, alto; Mrs. Annie Davis, bass; and Mrs. Matoira Billings, tenor; furnished several selections and songs and instrumental music helped fill up the program. A wand drill by eight young ladies commanded the closest attention from the large audience. The amount due on the new Grange piano was $125, and enough was realized from the fair to pay the bill.

Mrs. A. J. Wilson, jr., and Mrs. A. B. Atwood are visiting friends in Winthrop and Augusta.

Elsie Wade has returned from Pine Point beach, where she has been for the past two months. She is at home for a few weeks' rest.

We are glad to know that little Isme Jackson got the doll in the contest at the Grange fair on Friday evening, for no reason only that she is a little motherless child and needs all the bright things there are in this life for her to help brighten the lonely path that the little feet must tread without a mother's love, and we wish to say that credit is due Mrs. Josiah Moody, who worked hard for the little girl in the contest.

BOLSTER'S MILLS.

Mr. Hatch has been visited by his father.

William Carsley of Boston is at Colby Frost's.

Joseph Skillings is stopping in the village.

Mrs. Charles Harlow is boarding at Fred Weston's.

Percy Morrison of Auburn is at Leander Dorman's.

Benjamin Skillings is now able to walk out to the stores.

Ambrose Skillings recently called upon his relatives here.

Alfred Chute is passing his vacation at his parental home.

Fred Clark is having a piazza built on the front and east side of his house.

Russell Edwards and wife went to Norway, Saturday, to see Roswell Frost's family.

Sumner Smith and Bertha Edwards visited at Topsham, on Saturday and Sunday.

Webster Wight and wife, who are at their summer home in Casco, visited at E. A. Wight's.

George Greene accompanied by his sister, Lizzie Whitman from Boston, called on friends here recently.

Kittie Cook has returned to Oxford with her sister, Mrs. George Hazen.

Henry Jillson and his father, M. V. B. Jillson, went to Bangor to attend the fair and saw the President.

Mrs. Fannie Wight entertained the W. C. T. U. at a mothers' meeting, Wednesday afternoon. There was a program and two new members united with the union.

EAST WATERFORD.

Dowel Business Good.

The dowel manufactory is now being run to its full extent. Four machines are constantly plied by experienced hands. The water supply is getting short and the big engine will soon be in use. We don't know the amount of dowels shipped, but the clippings dumped in the mill yard were sufficient to bother the workmen and came near encroaching on the highway. To be rid of those they advertised to give them to each and all who would haul them away. Then teams from far and near flocked to the heap and woodsheds and other outbuildings were quickly filled. Heavy teams from Norway came with hayracks which they filled with this refuse, which makes the best of summer wood.

The common red or fox squirrel is very plenty, often making sad havoc with small fruit and sweet apples.

Mrs. Elvira Cummings, who is boarding with M. B. Morey, is in poor health, suffering from dropsy affecting the heart.

Frank Knight and wife have returned from Rumford Falls, where they have been working for the past few months.

A Mr. Hapgood of Cambridge, Mass., with his family is stopping with Leroy Sanderson. Mr. S. has hardly finished haying.

Mrs. J. H. Dixon came from Jacksonville, Florida, recently, where she has been stopping with her two daughters, who were severe losers by the recent conflagration.

The late warm, pleasant weather is hailed with joy, people often remarking that summer has just commenced. Crops are maturing rapidly and every indication of a dry but pleasant fall.

L. E. McIntire and George Hilton have each purchased a new patent stone lifter and stump puller. Apparently a very powerful instrument worked by a lever, requiring no cattle and worked by one man. Their cost is but $20 bringing them within reach of most farmers.

Some patches of potatoes are suffering from rust, also some beans, but not to any great extent. The apple crop is above an average. Fruit is uncommonly large and free from blemish. The blackberry crop, that is the cultivated, is probably the greatest ever known.

Mark Tapley is preparing for the ADVERTISER several sketches of rural life in Otisfield, coming under his immediate observation during the sunny years of boyhood. These sketches are unembellished and within the recollection of many of the inhabitants still living.

NORTH FRYEBURG.

Mrs. Abram Grey is in poor health.

Irving Bennett was at home for a day.

Mrs. Riley Charles of Boston is visiting at Roland Charles'.

B. C. Webb and wife with a party of relatives spent Friday at their camp at Kezar.

Mrs. Mary Kilgore and her grandchildren, Ruth and Vernon Giles, are visiting in Cornish.

Mrs. Adeline Kimball and Mrs. Lombard of Oakdale are the guests of V. H. Johnson and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hutchins and daughter and cousin, Ida Bumpus, are stopping at their camp for a few days.

Nellie Charles has gone to Stoneham to teach the fall term of school in the district where she taught the summer term.

The school opened Sept. 1, with the same teacher we had in the summer term. We are glad to have Miss Drown with us again.

The concert given under the auspices of the Grange at Red Men's Hall last week, was much enjoyed by a large audience, as was shown by the hearty applause.

W. G. Walker of Lovell was in the place a few days last week, looking over the corn. He says a few days of good weather will bring it along fast.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hutchins left for Lewiston Friday. They were going by the way of Waterford and Norway, and would make some visits on the way, as they went with their team.

WILSON'S MILLS.

Lost by Fire.

Guy W. Brooks lost his farm buildings with his entire crop of hay, farming implements, wagons, harnesses, etc., by fire, Aug. 28. The fire broke out about 3 p. m., one horse and three hogs were lost. Some furniture was saved from the house but all their winter clothing was burned. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holmes and children, Mr. and Mrs. Will Holmes of Vermont were visiting there and lost their harness, carriage robes and cushions. Nellie Lamb also a guest lost clothing. Some insurance in P. of H.

Isaiah Nason wife and sister of Gorham are visiting their brother, George Nason.

S. W. and E. S. Bennett arrived home from their guiding trip in the eastern part of the state, Sept. 2nd.

Addie Flint gave a lawn party Thursday evening but owing to the fire not as many were present as was expected but they realized over $17 from the sale of sandwiches, coffee, cake and ice cream, to be used for helping furnish the church when finished.

HARTFORD.

Mrs. Geo. Spaulding is ill.

Gertrude Higgins has been poorly for several weeks.

Mrs. Lydia Corliss is on a two weeks' visit with friends in Massachusetts.

THREE CHICAGO DOCTORS

Failed to Do for Miss Mabelle L. LaMonte What Was Accomplished by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was in an awful state for nearly three years with a complication of female troubles which three physicians called by different names, but the pains were all the same. I dreaded the time of my monthly periods for it meant a couple of days in bed in awful agony. I finally made up my mind that the good doctors were guessing; and hearing from different friends such good reports of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I tried that. I bless the day I did, for it was the dawning of a new life for me. I used five bottles before I was cured, but when they were taken I was a well woman once more. Your Compound is certainly wonderful. Several of my friends have used it since, and nothing but the best do I ever hear from its use."—Yours, MABELLE L. LAMONTE, 222 E. 31st St., Chicago, Ill.—$5000 forfeit if above testimonial is not genuine.

If Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound could cure Miss LaMonte—why not you? Try it and see for yourself.

Mrs. Pinkham advises sick women free. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Oil for the Children.
Give them oil—cod-liver oil. It's curious to see the result. Give it to the peevish, fretful child, and he laughs. Give it to the pale, anæmic child, and his face becomes rosy and full of health. Take a flat-chested child, or a child that has stopped growing, give him the oil, and he will grow big and strong like the rest.
This is not a new scheme. It has been done for years. Of course you must use the right oil. Scott's Emulsion. It's the one.
Scott's Emulsion neither looks nor tastes like oil because we are so careful in making it pleasant to take.

Nobody's Property

By Samuel Minturn Peck. (Copyrighted.)

"Have you informed Mrs. Layburn of the danger that threatens her son?" asked the girl.

"No, Miss Mary; I ain't tole her nothin' 'bout it. 'Twouldn't he'p Marse Alf. An' ole miss, she's dat ole an' shaky de shock mought kill her," said old Ben. "'Sides dat, Miss Mary, I knowed Marse Alf didn't want ole miss to know nothin' 'bout dat cotton till it was sole an' he had de money in his han', kaze, you see, he's plannin' to give ole miss a pleasant surprise," added the old negro, looking earnestly at Miss Edgewood.

"Why have you come to me, Uncle Ben? I am only a weak woman and can do nothing," said the girl, picking up her tatting and trying to resume her work.

"Miss Mary, I come to yo' kaze I was nigh crazy, an' I was 'bleeged to talk to somebody," said the old negro, with faltering voice and tugging at his old wool hat. "Den—den, Miss Mary, I knowed how it stan's 'tween yo' an' Marse Alf. 'Tain't all for de miss dat Marse Alf's reskin' hisself to get dis cotton. Furthermo', Miss Mary, I come to yo' kaze dar's some'h'n' yo' kin do to he'p Marse Alf ef so be yo'll des do it."

Old Ben eyed the girl closely as she struggled with her tatting.

"As yo' say, young miss, yo's weak an' yo's a woman, but sometimes de weakest is de mos' powerful. You know de Scripter say dat David laid out Goliah wid a pebble from de brook an' a sling."

"Surely, Uncle Ben, you don't wish me to kill Captain Adams with a pair of scissors," said Mary Edgewood, smiling.

"No, little miss; I don't want yo' to do no killin' 'cept'n' wid yo' pretty face an' de sweetness ob yo'r voice," said Ben. Then, advancing a step under the honeysuckle vine, he added in a lower tone:

"'Pears to dis ole nigger dat if yo' was to ax de cap'n not to tetch Marse Alf an' to let dat cotton alone he mought to it. Yo' see, it's dis way, Miss Mary. De war's over an' done wid, an' what good would it do to jail Marse Alf? He ain't gwine fight no more. An' what in de name ob Gawd would be de use ob takin' dat cotton 'way from Marse Alf an' Marse Jack? De Unointed States is so rich it wouldn't make 'em much richer, an' it would make Marse Alf and Marse Jack mons'ous poor. Dem young marsers b'longs to de quality, an' dey des 'bleeged to have some money to buy plows an' corn an' mules to start plantin' wid, for de Lawd knows ef de quality ain't 'lowed to have nothin' an' de country is give up to de poor white trash what never seed de inside ob a carriage an' never rid behine a Kaintucky horse what's gwine come ob dis poor 'stracted lan'!"

"But, Uncle Ben, Captain Adams may not grant my request," said the girl meditatively.

"Well, ef so be he don't, Miss Mary, we won't be no wuss off. But, Lawd, he ain't gwine say no, dat he ain't. Yo' know, little missie, dat yo' never looked a man squeer in de face wid dem blue eyes ob yourn an' ax him to do some'h'n' an' he never done it. An' de cap'n ain't gwine be de fust one to say no, for a soldier can't refuse a pretty 'oman nothin'."

Uncle Ben scanned the girl's face to see the effect of his reasoning, and, perceiving that she still hesitated, he brought forward his last and strongest argument.

"Furthermo', Miss Mary, it's des impossible for de cap'n to say no. Didn't yo' an' yo'r ma take him home an' nuss him when he was at de p'int ob death. Bless Gawd, dat man would 'a' been dead dis minute ef he had stayed in dat dar prison, an' he knows it. An', little miss, yo' know what de cullud folks say?"

"What do they say, Uncle Ben?"

"Well, de cullud folks 'low, an' dey's good at readin', dat de cap'n loves yo'

The girl was intensely interested.

mighty nigh as hard as Marse Alf. Now, dar's some men would do deir level best in dem conditions to git Marse Alf in trouble, but de cap'n ain't dat kine."

"Does Captain Adams know that Mr. Layburn and I are—are great friends?"

"Yes, Miss Mary; he got it from Jake. 'Cordin' dat nigger's account, he des turned hisself wrong side out."

It was now quite dark, and Mary Edgewood rose to return to the house. She had almost resolved to follow Ben's suggestion and seek an interview with Adams in behalf of her lover. One lingering doubt remained, and she said to the negro as she left the summer house:

"I will do what I can, Uncle Ben. I have great respect for Captain Adams. I believe he is conscientious, and for that reason I fear he may think that his duty forbids him to grant my request."

Old Ben scratched his head.

EAST FRYEBURG.

A Smart Lady.

We think Mary McKey is a very smart lady of her age, 81 years. She is doing the housework for herself and her brother and entertaining guests from Portland, relatives of hers, Eben True and wife, who are on their bridal tour.

Potatoes in this vicinity are rotting very badly.

Stephen Wiley of Boston is visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. J. J. and Mrs. E. W. Pike.

Mrs. Kate Meserve, who has been at work for Mrs. Ada Harnden, has returned to her home in Portland.

Part of the summer visitors on Carter Hill have returned to their homes in Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Mrs. M. A. Seavey and Mrs. A. J. McIntire called on Mr. and Mrs. George McKey, recently, and found them enjoying quite good health.

Mrs. Ada Harnden was very happily surprised, one day of late, when Philip Emerson and wife, her friends from Lynn came to see her. They were on their way home from Plymouth, N. H. They wheeled all the way from Plymouth, coming via North Conway and Center Conway. They made a short visit of only two days.

E. B. Dresser, wife and daughter Beryl attended the picnic at Camp Kezar held by the Patrons of Fryeburg Grange. There were visitors from Frost Mountain Grange, Brownfield, also from Eagle Grange, North Chatham, N. H. L. C. Bateman of Lewiston and Prof. Morse of Paris entertained the people in a very able manner.

CHAPMAN.

Miss Baker from Bath is visiting at S. A. Reed's.

George Morrison spent the day Sunday at G. W. Kneeland's.

W. R. Rice from Albany was at Geo. Kneeland's, last week.

Florence Rice returned, the 23d, to her sister's from Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. John Swasey spent Labor day at their cottage.

Mr. Toshet and Mr. Wight are loading poplar for the Oxford Paper Co.

Jim Hodgdon and wife of Andover took dinner at Geo. Kneeland's, recently.

John and Al Reed of Frye have finished cutting the hay for J. A. Thurston.

Mrs. Ella G. Taft and Florence Rice were at the Falls to see the parade and ball game.

Don C. Rand has finished making shook and is now working in the shoe shop at Mechanic Falls.

Jim Spinney and family have moved to the house by the Lewis Reed mill. Their children have been sick with the whooping cough.

A very happy crowd took dinner under the pines, Sunday, 31st. The party were Mrs. Taft and daughter Hazel, Mr. and Mrs. Kneeland, Harvey Stearns and Florence Rice.

George Kneeland and Harvey Stearns went to the Falls, Saturday, on business. While going a cinder from the engine landed in Mr. K.'s eye and was very painful, and he was obliged to go to a doctor and have it removed.

Mrs. Ella G. Taft and daughter Hazel and Lee Kneeland and sister, Miss Rice, were at the Falls, Wednesday, the 27th, and they were very pleasantly entertained by F. F. Bartlett with some fine selections on the phonograph.

NORTH BUCKFIELD.

Blackberries are very plenty.

Nice weather for the farmers to finish haying.

Earl Hammond is at work for Jefferson Farrar.

Wm. Clapp from Salem, Mass., is at Spaulding cottage for a week's stay.

A party from this place held a picnic at North Pond, the 26.

Isaac Fuller went to Rumford, last Thursday, on business.

Mrs. Angeline Damon is boarding at Quinn Allen's in Paris.

Mrs. Georgia Warren is having a bad cold.

Will Harris was in our place, recently on business.

Mrs. Cynthia Atwood from Massachusetts is visiting at Herman Morse's.

Warren Buck is visiting his cousin, Wilbur Warren.

Gideon Hammond's health is very poor.

Joe Cummings and Frank Warren are in the bee business.

John Ford and wife from Hartford have been on a visit to Mord Rowe's.

Emogene Buck is going to school at Buckfield, this fall.

Frank Warren built an arch for Gideon Hammond's dryhouse.

Mrs. Helen Chandler and Mrs. Fannie Lothrop and son have been at Mrs. J. E. Mayhew's.

J. F. Bicknell and wife passed last Saturday and Sunday at Norway with his son, E. F. Bicknell.

Wm. Clapp, jr., and Charles Brown from Salem, Mass., arrived in the place, Saturday, and left again, Monday.

Marion Doble, who has been visiting at Fred Heald's, left, Monday, for her home in Massachusetts.

Lila Fletcher has been on a week's visit to West Peru. While there she visited Ethel Bradbury's school. Miss Bradbury has 24 scholars.

Mrs. Rosette Bicknell has been very sick. A dispatch was sent for her daughter at Boston, Mrs. EuDora Cobb, who came the next day to care for her mother. She is better again.

Stephen Spaulding got one of his work horses cut by the mowing machine, the past week, so badly that he had to shoot it. About a week before he found one of his best cows dead in the pasture. Surely he has bad luck.

RUMFORD POINT.

Date Merrill has returned home.

Myrtle Barker has gone to Lewiston.

L. Whitney of Bethel has been in town.

Mark Elliott and wife attended the State fair.

Mrs. Fred Eames went to Berlin, N. H., recently.

Alvin Goddard has bought the ferry and moved in.

W. W. Worcester has moved into Mrs. F. H. Bartlett's house.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Near the State Line.

Schools in town opened Monday, Sept. 1st. No school at Birch Hill.

Andrew J. Hill of Haverhill, Mass., returned to his home, last Friday, from his visit to Green Hill friends.

N. R. Hardy has so far recovered from his late illness as to be out of doors and looking after his farming affairs.

Hon. Dean A. Ballard between haying and harvesting is using his time in shingling part of his buildings and making other improvements.

D. B. Hill has had the barn and shed of Oldstead shingled recently and Will Robbins, who did most of the work, is doing some shingling on his own buildings.

E. F. McIntire of the mill is having a drive in business. He is getting out lumber for a schoolhouse in Stow and for a stable for Mr. Adams of Fryeburg, and also for a two tenement house in Fryeburg for H. K. Hobbs of East Fryeburg.

Professor Melville Ballard and daughter returned to their home in Washington, D. C., Sept. 2d, after their vacation of about two months pleasantly spent in Fryeburg and West Fryeburg mostly. On Thursday of last week with Ray and Louise Ballard they drove to Conway, N. H., and made the ascent of Kearsarge mountain.

Mrs. R. F. Draper, son and granddaughter, who have been guests at J. H. Hardy's, returned to their home in Wakefield, Mass., Friday, Aug. 29. R. F. Draper, who is a Grand Army man, went to Weirs, N. H., to attend the New Hampshire veterans' reunion held there instead of spending his vacation in West Fryeburg, as he has aforetime done.

Arthur Shirley of East Conway while tying up a new cow, last week, was knocked down and kicked in the face by the animal, and suffered a dislocation of the jaw and other injuries to his face. A physician was sent for but Mr. Shirley had succeeded in getting his jaw in place by his own efforts before the doctor's arrival. The other damage was duly attended to and Mr. Shirley will soon be in his usual good order.

A friend from Jackson, N. H., has been a guest at J. D. Meserve's for a few days.

We notice H. D. E. Hutchins has a new horse, the exchange being with a man from Stow.

Chas. Stevens and Hattie Gilpatric spent a few days at Mrs. Sarah Stevens', including Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Watson of Bridgton came to see Mrs. W.'s mother at Frank L. Eastman's recently.

Mrs. Susan Tucker has returned to her home at the village, being quite poorly. We hope she will improve very soon.

The thermometer was at 92 degrees at three o'clock, Aug. 31st. "Good corn weather" is the exclamation of every one.

E. L. Walker returned to his home, Sept. 1st, after an outing of a week in camp at Kezar. Mrs. W. remained for another week with her sister, Mrs. Charles.

Isa Jackson of Sangerville, who taught the grammar school at the village, last term, has returned for the fall term and was the guest of her friend and schoolmate, Mrs. Minnie Woodward, while in Farmington Normal, Sunday, Aug. 31st.

BRIDGTON.

The State Fair attracted many from this place.

Mrs. Harry McKinney has returned from an extended trip to New York.

John Bachelder has purchased the business owned and carried on by C. H. Stevens.

C. H. Stevens has purchased the barber shop of Arthur D. Draper and will continue the business.

James D. Cobb has returned from Westbrook, where he has been visiting relatives, the past week.

The concert given by the Little Robinson Sisters Concert Co. was a grand success in every way. A critical audience prononnced the concert excellent. The dance which followed was well patronized.

A very pleasant reception was tendered, one evening the past week, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanborn of Portsmouth, N. H., by Mrs. Nellie Lovejoy, whom they visited recently. Neighbors numbering about twenty-five responded to the cordial invitation to pass the evening. Ice cream and cake were served for refreshments. During the evening many pleasing selections were rendered on the piano by Annie Pledge, adding much to the spirit of the occasion. At a late hour the party dispersed after extending their best wishes to their hostess, Mrs. Lovejoy.

SUNDAY RIVER.

E. H. Ingalls of Portland was in town of late.

Sanford Brown was home from Paris.

Benjamin Aldrich has been to Berlin, N. H.

A. H. Powers has completed a job of bricklaying and plastering for H. M. Kendall.

Mrs. C. B. Foster and daughter Mabel have returned to their home in Everett, Mass.

The rain Monday night did not prevent a good attendance at the party at J. F. Eames'.

Mrs. Belle Smith has returned to Chelsea, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Atherton accompanied her as far as Portland.

Thurston Bros. have a crew in Ketchum at work on Bull Branch blasting and clearing the channel. Warren Emery has charge.

Staples--Hannaford.

A very pretty wedding occurred recently. The happy couple were Harry H. Hannaford of Gorham and Julia Staples of Welchville. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Hannaford, by Rev. Dwight F. Faulkner, pastor of the School Street M. E. church. The bride was most becomingly gowned in a mode traveling suit. The parlor in which the twain were made one was very beautifully decorated with plants and a profusion of cut flowers by Nathaniel Hannaford, brother of the groom. After congratulations Mr. and Mrs. Hannaford left for a short wedding trip.

WATERFORD.

Waterford's Election.

The election in Waterford passed off with very little excitement, but plenty of grim determination, the result being a very flattering vote for Bertrand G. McIntire, who received the full democratic vote and more than one-half of all the republican votes that were polled. The chief interest centered in contest for representative to the legislature, and a remarkably large vote was polled. No such majority has been given a candidate for political honors since the days when A. S. Kimball, esq., was a resident of our town and on many occasions demonstrated his ability to poll the full strength of his party and also a very large republican vote as well. If Mr. McIntire had been defeated in the district he would still have reason to be proud of the endorsement received from his townsmen.

L. E. Wheeler is the proud owner of fifteen "Helgian bears."

Wm. Douglass has returned from his vacation, refreshed in mind and body.

WEST FRYEBURG.

Charmingly Entertained.

The Stirling Literary Club were charmingly entertained by Susie Jewett at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Jones, Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 2. The pleasant rooms of the hostesses were rendered still more attractive by the beauty and fragrance of a profusion of sweet peas and pansies greeting the senses at every turn.

A good attendance and a pleasing program including quotations from various sources, and all excellent in character, marked the occasion.

Always a favorite with readers and hearers, Whittier's "Rivermouth Rocks" was well interpreted by Mrs. Marion Chandler. Longfellow's "Blind Girl of Castel Cuillee" was the next in order and was listened to with the serious attention which the poem merited. In lighter vein came "Samantha at Saratoga," very acceptably varying the general gravity of the selections given, read by Mrs. Harriette O. Jones. Emma Towle read a paper pertaining to the future of the Stirling Literary Club, which may prove to be a prophecy. Time will decide.

Mrs. Kate Meserve read a clipping of interest in the line of current events, and at the close of the exercises a brief time for sociability intervened before the last club tea of the season, which certainly was not least in excellence, and reflected credit upon the youthful hostess. At their departure each member received a bouquet of the flowers that had lent their services in the decorations.

Mrs. S. O. Wiley receives the club at its next meeting, Sept. 16.

Wiley Walker of North Conway is assisting E. L. Walker in building a silo.

Fred Meserve and Fred Hutchins took an outing of a few days in Jackson, recently.

Alice Emerson of Stow was the guest of her friend, Mrs. Kate Meserve, over Sunday.

Mrs. Rosaltha Ellis of Canton has been a recent guest of Mrs. Gilbert Tilton.

A heavy frost occurred Saturday morning. Some crops were damaged, others not.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Tilton, after spending a week in Auburn, returned, Monday.

A big job is being done on the village street. It has been for some time the worst in town.

A ball game Saturday between married men and boys resulted in a score of 6 to 26 in favor of the boys.

Mrs. Ella U. Emery of Boston returned to her home in Boston, Saturday, after spending the summer with relatives.

Mrs. Merritt Parsons and husband are entertaining Mrs. Parsons' brother and wife of Nashua, N, H., Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Isaac Shaw recently received a box of pineapples from Florida where she and her husband spent the past winter. They were very fine as we can testify.

Edward L. Parris, esq., and family of New York were in town, Sept. 3, it being his birthday. It is his custom to come to the place of his birth from his summer home on Paris Hill on this day.

Ward Maxim and H. L. Holmes, former shovel handle manufacturers here, later in Indiana and Ohio, have recently visited here with their wives, and are going into the same business in Lewiston.
